

~ Laura's Loyal Stampers ~

For every $25 you spend on my blog (orders must be $25 or more and before Shipping & Tax to count), you will earn 1 point. Orders cannot be combined to total $25.

For example: At $25, you will earn 1 point. At $50, you will earn 2 points. You will continue to earn points for every $25 increment afterwards. Orders of $150 or more will receive 6 or more points as well as Hostess Freebies!

You can then cash in your points however you wish:

4 Points – 5 Hand-Stamped Greeting Cards made by ME!

8 Points – Your Choice of Ribbon (up to $8.95 value)

12 Points – Paper Snips & Bone Folder ($16.90 value)

16 Points - Your Choice of Stamp Set (up to $24.95 value)

20 Points – Your Choice of Stamp Set (any value)

How to redeem your Points?

I will keep track of your Points and email you when you have hit 4 Points. You will then have to let me know if you wish to cash in your points at that time or hold on to them. Your points will expire one year from the initial purchase date.

Be sure when you are placing your order online, that you are checking YES in the box stating "Allow my demonstrator to contact me with order updates and other important information." If the box is checked "NO", I won't know who placed the order and you will not receive any points or a Thank You Note from me for your order!

Are you ready? Go check out My Online Store (or go to www.LaurasStampPad.com and click Shop Now along the top) and become one of Laura's Loyal Stampers and start earning points!!!

You can shop by clicking here or you can always click the links in my blog posts for the supplies that I used. When you go to check out, you will need to log in as a customer. Be sure to write down the email and password you enter so you can shop with me in the future. I do not have access to your online information because this is your personal shopping account information. Orders of $150 or more will receive Hostess Benefits, be sure to select those Freebies before completing your order.
